

Understanding Historic Buildings

Saturday 12th May

Four lectures:

10.00-10.45 Cruck

Construction: Distribution and Dating by Dr. Nat Alcock (University of Warwick)

11.15-12.00 Spolia Britannica:

The historical use of salvaged building materials in Britain by Michael Heaton (Archaeologist and Building Historian)

1.00-1.45 Differences in timber-framing between two counties by Duncan James (Insight - Historic Buildings Research)

2.15-3.00 Saddles and Skew Pegs: The Construction of Cruck Buildings by Dr. Nat Alcock

VENUE: Porch House, Castle Street, Thornbury, South Glou, BS35 1HA. Bar & tea/coffee available. Cost £6 (£3 to GBRG members). Doors open 9.30am

Organised by Gloucestershire Building Recording Group (GBRG) www.buildingarchaeology.org

Tickets available from: the venue, or the GBRG at Oakraven, Jubilee Rd, Mitcheldean, GL17 0EE